TENTACULAR THINKING

TIMESPACEMATTERING

Through our project we invited participants to co-create propositions for justice in higher education from the perspective of timespacemattering (Barad, 2007). In the current epoch of the neoliberal university, troubled by the multiple pressures that students and staff are subjected to, we ask what kinds of political shifts in higher education would enable us to 'do time differently', so as to initiate new forms of onto-epistemic justice?
